

The True Northerner.

VOLUME XLI. NUMBER 36.

PAW PAW, VAN BUREN COUNTY, MICHIGAN, FRIDAY, OCTOBER 25, 1895.

WHOLE NUMBER 2118.

W. R. SELICK & CO.—DRY GOODS, BOOTS AND SHOES

WARM OR COLD, MAKES NO DIFFERENCE.

Our prices are like the celebrated 'possum trap, that would catch the varmints "comin or a-gwine." Being always as bright and fresh as a July morning, our stock is ever rich in novelties and abundant in staples. To buy without seeing our aggregation is to deplete your purse without consulting your judgment; that, in times like these, is almost criminal.

SEE THESE ONCE.

A 28 inch Ladies' Jacket, Melon Sleeves, at $3.90, worth $6.00
A handsome Beaver Jacket, Navy Blue, at 5.39, worth 7.00
A magnificent line of Beaver and Boucle Jackets in the very latest style, ranging from $5.50 to $15.00
Cloth, Plush and Fur Capes we display at moderate prices.

Intending purchasers of Dress Goods will find at our store the newest novelties in the late weaves the season has produced. They come in dress length and no duplicates. Goods that sell from $1.25 to $1.50 per yard; we offer them at 85c and $1.10 respectively. We urge you to select early, the best will soon be taken.

Just take a look at the new CARPETS and CURTAINS. Floor OIL CLOTHS in 4-4, 5-4, 6-4 and 8-4 widths in the different qualities.

W. R. SELICK & CO.

HOLMES & BILSBORROW—HARDWARE.

Sold only by HOLMES & BILSBORROW.

Cold Trilbies, certainly, you'll always have 'em until you get a famous ROUND OAK. It warms the floor around the stove, not the stove board. The baby creeps in warmth. You save a dollar on the start buying an imitation; can you afford it? When the dollar, and more with it, comes back in fuel saved, then the comfort of having the one, and only stove, that does perfect work, and does it year after year. See the name on the leg.

WE ALSO SELL THE

Jewel Base Heater

Wood Stoves—have sold them for years and have yet to find a dissatisfied purchaser. They are simply all right, and positively the best base heating wood stove on the market to-day.

COAL STOVES?

Why, of course. When you think of excellence in coal stoves, some way or other the name "GARLAND" naturally pops into your mind. Everybody knows about the excellence of the Garland coal burners, and the mention of the name is all that is necessary to interest intending purchasers.

Attention is called to the notice in another column of the sale at auction by the administrator of the furniture stock and other personal property of the late H. P. Nelson.

Men's muscles move better in perfect fitting clothes. Put on a pair of "H. S. & M." trousers and you will want to run a mile. See them at the Long Brick Store of E. Smith & Co.

Mrs. Will Miller entertained Messdames Henry Crosby, George Merriman, Vol Manley, George Chamberlin and George Ocochok of Hartford last Wednesday for dinner and the Coterie.

Supervisor Johnson is a pretty fair man. He thought his full term of three years he was honorably discharged and went back to the state of New York, where he re-enlisted in Co. "C", 111th N. Y. infantry, on the 4th day of June, 1864. He won an enviable record as a soldier, proving himself to be a brave, patriotic man. After the close of the war he settled in the township of Porter, in this county, where, on the 17th day of December, 1867, he was married to Miss Eliza A. Munger, who, with eight children, survives him.

In the fall of 1886, he was nominated by his republican fellow citizens as their candidate for the office of register of deeds and was elected by a majority of 1,011 over his principal competitor.

In 1888, he was again chosen to the same office by a vote that increased his majority to 1,743. He was one of the most competent officials that ever filled that position in this county. He died at his home in this village on Friday, Oct. 18, after a brief illness, aged 52 years, 4 months and 28 days. Funeral services were held in the Free Baptist church on Sunday last, Rev. J. H. Darling, assisted by Revs. E. H. Harvey and Anna Barton, officiating. A very large concourse of his friends attended the service. The burial was in the township of Porter. Mr. Monroe was a man who had many warm friends who will sincerely mourn his death. He was a man of more than ordinary ability, a true friend and a genial companion, and will be missed in this community.

Friday evening, the M. E. ladies gave a chicken pie supper in Dr. Maynard's building, and Tuesday evening the Disciple ladies served chicken pie in the same place. Both suppers were liberally patronized.

If you want to know about the 20th century woman, don't fail to hear John Temple Graves on that subject, Nov. 2. Price for single tickets for Graves' lecture, 50 cents; course tickets for the four lectures, $1.00.

On Tuesday, Village Treasurer Bullard paid $700 indebtedness due the Savings Bank. This frees the village from floating debt and makes $3,500 of indebtedness, with interest, that has been paid this year.

South Haven people are even poorer than we thought. Outside of the village, with the exception of one banker who is assessed $7,200, the entire personal assessment amounts only to the paltry sum of $1,200, and not a man is assessed to exceed $600 of personal estate.

Judge Heckert, Messrs. E. F. Parks and R. W. Broughton were among the Mystic Shriners who invaded Grand Rapids last week. They report the sands as unusually hot and enjoyed themselves hugely. Mr. Parks was one of the 65 candidates upon whom the "work" was performed.

Ladies intending to buy cloaks or jackets this fall, will make a grave mistake if they don't inspect the superb stock at Sellick's before purchasing. See their adv. in this issue.

On Monday last, Dr. Palmer of Hartford, assisted by Drs. Rose of Decatur and Maxwell of this place, removed a cancerous breast from Mrs. N. Thomas. The patient is making a satisfactory recovery.

The ladies of the Coterie were fortunate in securing John Temple Graves to address the people of Paw Paw, Nov. 2. He rarely makes small towns, but having an engagement in Kalamazoo Nov. 1, they were enabled to secure him for the next night.

A surgical operation was performed Wednesday by Dr. J. C. Maxwell, assisted by Drs. Hoyt, Rose and J. E. Maxwell, removing a swollen, suppurated gland from the neck of Miss Ethel Tyner. The operation was a delicate one and was successful in every way.

The new piano for the school house arrived Tuesday. In order that the patrons of the school may have an opportunity to judge of the quality of the instrument, a musical has been arranged to take place at high school room this evening, in which some of the best musicians of the village will take part. All are invited. The program will commence at 7:30.

Village Treasurer Bullard collected in $700 last Monday, which was the last day of his extended time. He is now engaged in preparing his return of unpaid taxes, but as he does not have to file it with the county treasurer until next Wednesday, those who have not already done so can pay taxes to him until that date and thus save the per cent that will afterward be added.

The Coterie was highly entertained by the third committee, on Wednesday last, at the home of Mrs. Rose Miller. The program was exclusively English, and the parlors were decorated with English ivy and portraits of English nobility. In the dining room were 29 specimens of flowers from merry England. Last, but not least, English bread and tea was served, which made every lady wish that England was not separated from us by the turbulent ocean.

The following bold Van Buren county hunters have full legal authority to kill five deer apiece—if they can. Isaac Garver, S. W. Ross, W. E. Grimes, S. P. Cross, V. F. Randall, Jesse Thomas, Jos. Pelong, Matthew A. Sloan, Eli Boleu, H. C. Thayer, Andrew Wright, Charles Johnson, J. W. Thayer, C. M. Morrison, M. Peters, Ira Cherryholmes, Wm. J. Wick, Orville Garver, George Horton, James Baxter, John W. Tulley, Daniel Baxter, H. S. Wallace, W. W. Greenman, H. B. Corwin, Fred Harris, John Conley, Geo. Wallace. This means death(?) to 140 of Michigan's noblest game.

Last week Monday morning, Mrs. Jane Crane went to Decatur with Mrs. Margaret Hughton to ship some freight from that place. They drove a horse hitched to a single wagon. While at the depot, Mrs. Crane sat in the wagon holding the horse, while Mrs. Hughton was attending to the shipping. The horse became frightened at a wagon load of wheat going up the elevator bridge and ran with Mrs. Crane. The vehicle was overturned and smashed up, while Mrs. Crane was considerably bruised. She received prompt medical attendance and is now at home again, but is suffering from some internal injuries, which, however, it is not thought are severe or dangerous.

Canada was invaded last Friday evening by a crowd of Paw Paw Yankees, who soon found a house with the occupants away from home. A window had been left unsecured, and through this they gained admission and soon had made themselves at home. This possession was continued well into the night and even after the owners, H. L. McNeil and wife, had returned. Tables had been set and everything was ready for an oyster supper. Anyone knowing the Unity Whist club can judge that a good time was had. By a mere coincidence, the evening was the wedding anniversary of the host and hostess. Many tokens were left, and after a pleasant evening the invaders marched homeward.

Joel D. Monroe was born in the town of Sempronius, Cayuga county, N. Y., on the 22d day of May, 1843. On the 17th day of May, 1861, he entered the service of his country as a member of Co. "I", 55th Ohio infantry, being not quite 18 years of age at the time of his enlistment. After serving his full term of three years he was honorably discharged and went back to the state of New York, where he re-enlisted in Co. "C", 111th N. Y. infantry, on the 4th day of June, 1864. He won an enviable record as a soldier, proving himself to be a brave, patriotic man. After the close of the war he settled in the township of Porter, in this county, where, on the 17th day of December, 1867, he was married to Miss Eliza A.
